The Lantern Lambuth University

Volume 71

Niki Rager~ Editor

the world out there starts here

Lambuth University is a place where today's students prepare for the future. Many of the students here today will go on to be teachers, artists, accountants, lawyers, doctors, and many other professions. The time spent here at Lambuth prepares students to become a part of the larger global community.

The Lambuth experience is a time for fun as well as hard work. Students not only develop skills and talents for use here, but for their lives outside of the working world.

After graduation, the culmination of learning, work, and play can be taken into the "real world". So, truly the "World Out There, Starts Here."

Junior Stephanie Maddox takes a look out her window to the world of Lambuth below.

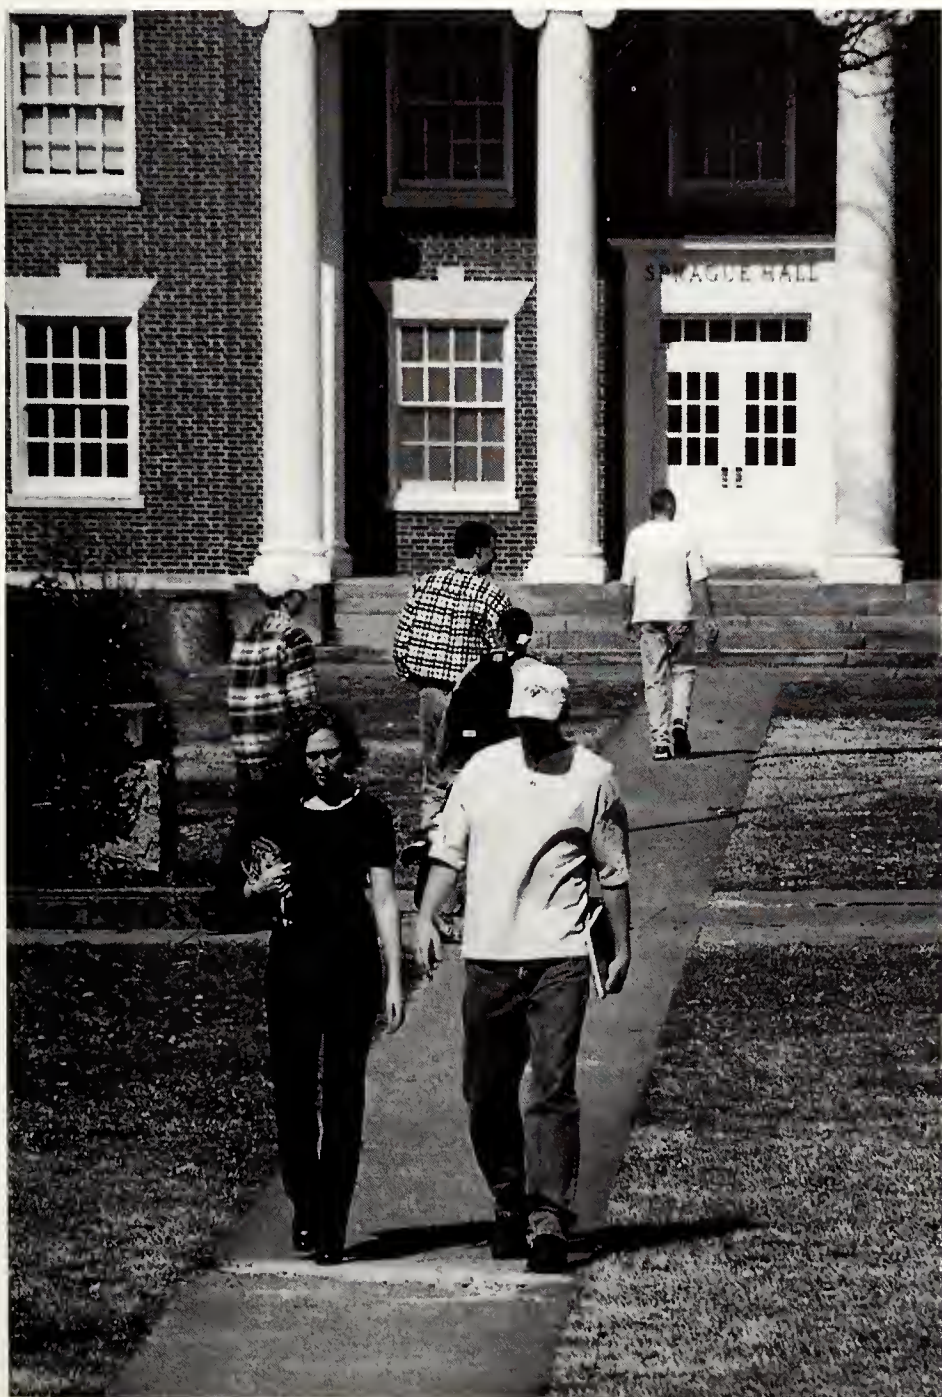

These students may one day exchange backpacks for briefcases, but for now books are the order of business.

Theresa Lammie, Rebekah Russell, and Amanda Girten watch intramurals, a popular diversion for students.

Gathering at the flagpole for Homecoming unites the worlds of alumni and students.

Relationships begun at Lambuth often remain intact after leaving the academic world.

Spring into our world

The spring of 1998 brought with it new additions to the traditional LU spring. Along with Intramurals, Free Skate Nite, Black & Women's History Month Celebrations, and Spring Fling came new events including Family Day, Redneck Man, the first annual ISA International Festival, an outdoor art exhibit and even Dr. Berkowitz, hypnotist extraordinaire.

Paul Conway, Kyle Bargett and Gerard Cleary take a GQ break from some invigorating intramural action.

Kevin Lorenz, Jared Mims and Sara Becker rest their aching feet at the annual Skate Nite at Magic Wheels.

Daryl, Daryl, and Daryl, better known as Luke Finney, Brian Bradford and Hol Hubbard show their Southern pride during the talent portion of AOP's Redneck Man.

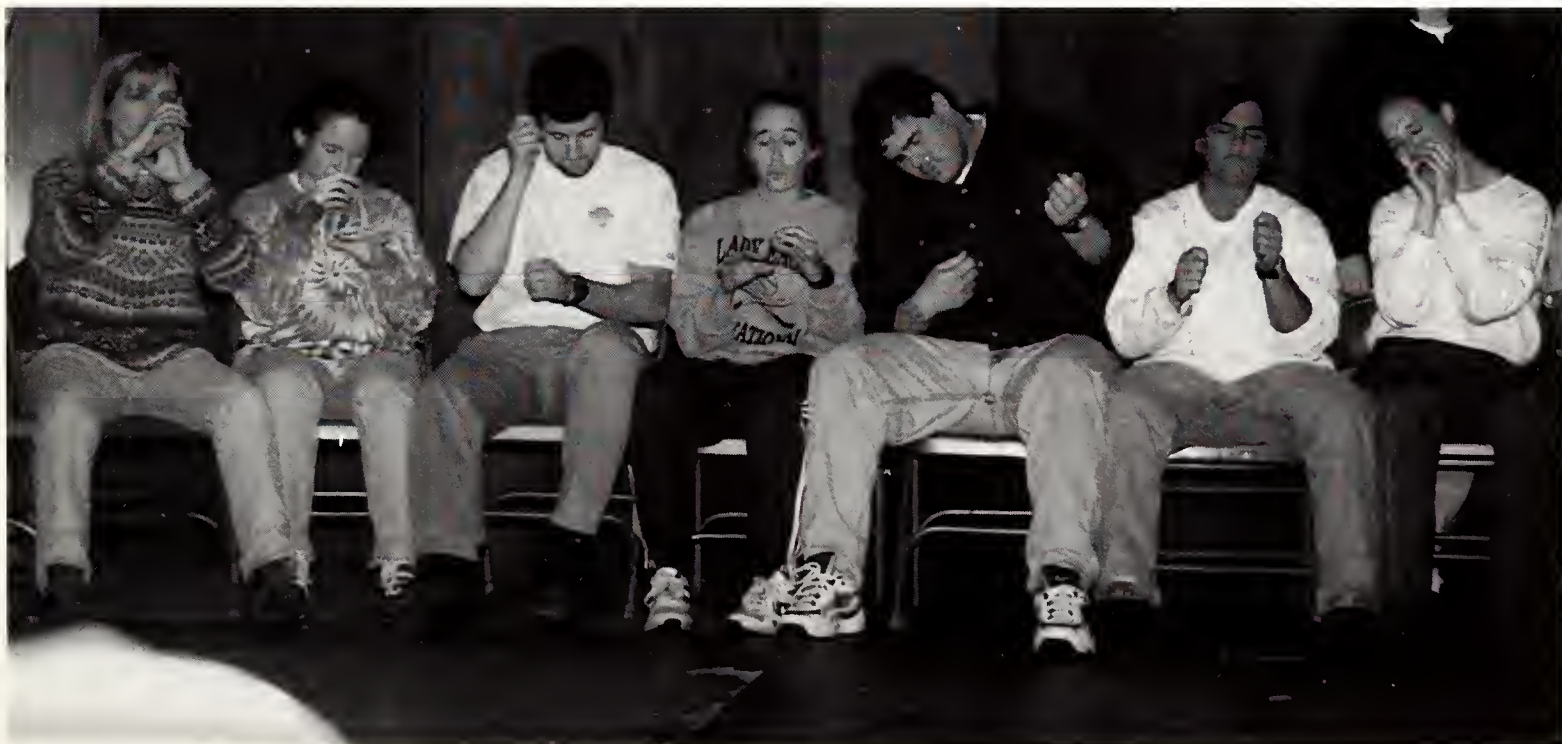

ISA members prepare for the first annual International Festival. The festival includes food, music and other cultural elements from various countries.

These "pot people" were part of a campus-wide outdoor art exhibit.

Master Harold and the Boys

On February 19-21, 1998, Lambuth's theater presented Master Harold and the Boys. Hally, played by Emanuel Loreant, is a young white student who lives in South Africa. Willie, played by Bryan Jackson, and Motelewa Smith, as Sam, are two men who work for Hally's mother in the café. Throughout the play the relationship changes from one of friendship to a master-servant relationship.

Hally is a school boy who visits his mother's café every day after school.

Sam and Willie have yet another disagreement while working in the café.

Willie and Sam clean up and discuss the upcoming dance contest.

Hally gets upset and tries to put Willie and Sam in their place.

A Doll's House

Henrik Ibsen's A Doll's House was presented by the theater Easter weekend. This play starred Andy Brown (Torvald), Lauren Taylor (Nora), David Pyron (Dr. Rank), Amy Rust (Mrs. Linde), Travis Garner (Krogstad), Emily Foster (Anne Marie), and Wendy Keller (Helene).

Wendy Keller, the maid, talks to Andy Brown, the boss Torvold.

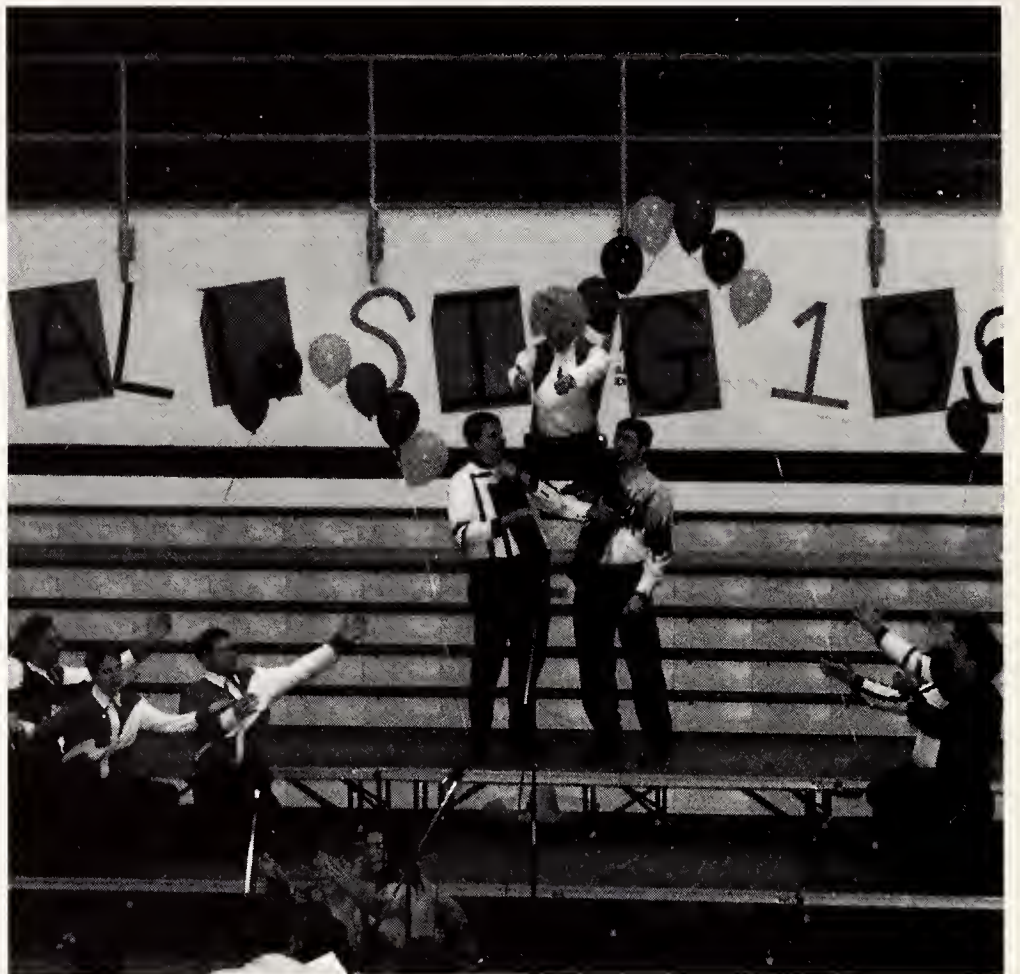

Krogstad confronts Nora.

Nora pleads to her husband Torvold.

All~Sing

Lambuth University's annual All-Sing competition took place on April 4, 1998. The event, which was held in the Lambuth Memorial Gym, raised proceeds for LeBonheur and Operation Snackfood. Seven organizations participated, including Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Phi Mu, Phi Sigma Eta and Sigma Phi Epsilon. First place went to Phi Mu, second place Alpha Omicron Pi and third place went to Alpha Gamma Delta.

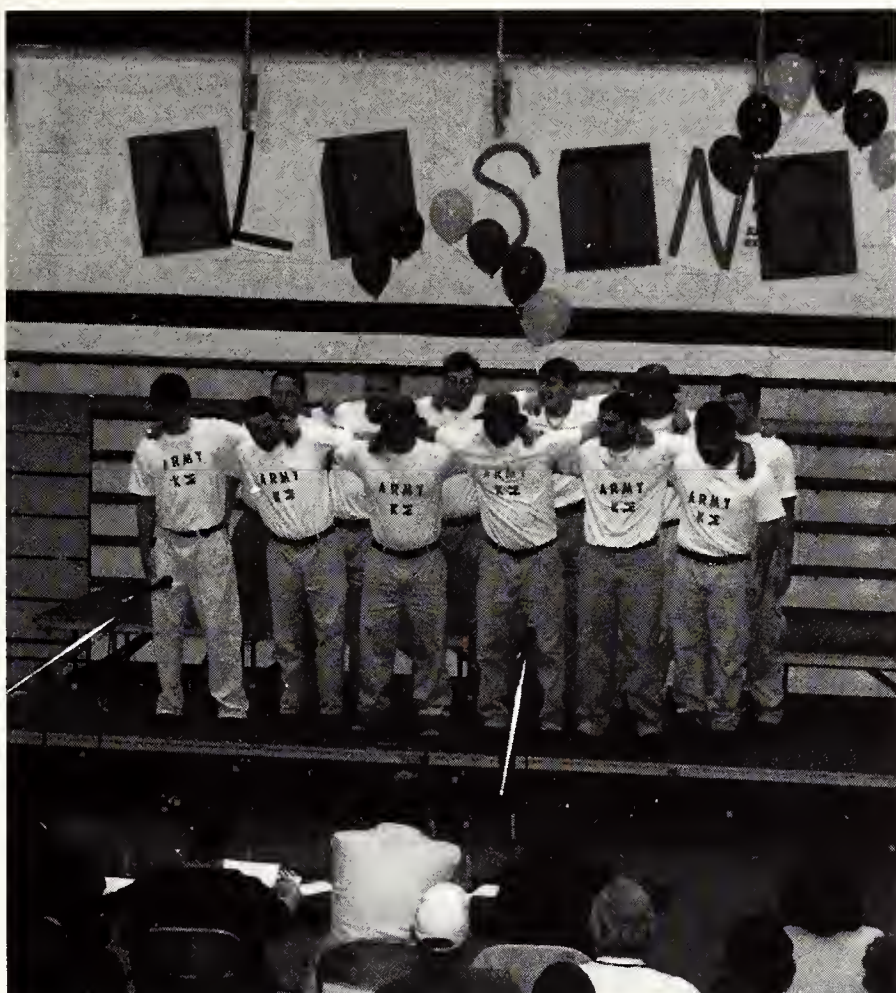

Sigma Phi Epsilon prepares for their finale.

Phi Mu forms a flag to salute the U.S.A.

FCA sings their praises to the Lord.

The brothers of Kappa Sigma show their unity.

Alpha Omicron Pi gets down to motown music.

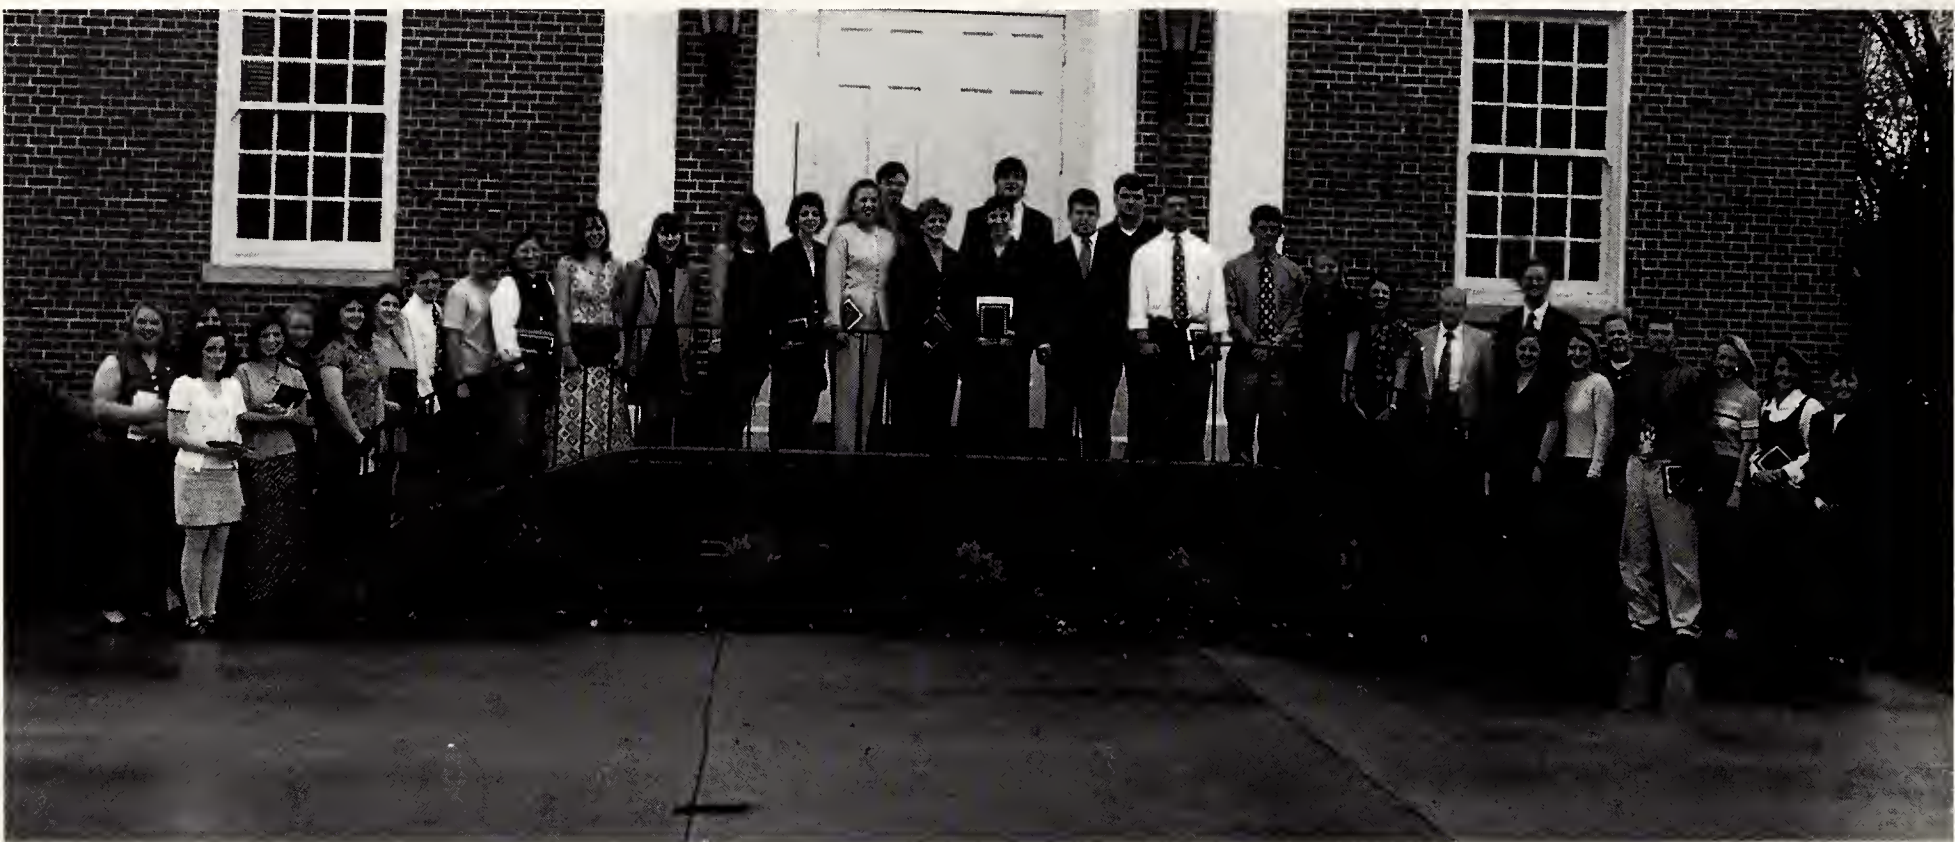

The brothers of Sig Ep show off their talented vocal stylings.

KA shows the crowd their new dance steps.

Honors Day Convocation

Jason Paulsmeyer, president of Gamma Beta Phi, gives Tonya Hughes the Gamma Beta Phi award.

Dr. Hakim presents the math award to Amanda Jordan .

Dr. Robert Mathis is congratulated by Dr. Randy Austin and President Arnold as they present an award from the governor of Tennessee.

L.U. Graduates Embark Upon...

Graduation 1998 saw over a hundred graduates receive degrees. Most of them were happy to graduate, yet sad to leave Lambuth. The gymnasium was filled with hundreds of people waiting to see their loved ones walk across the stage ready to enter the real world.

Dr. Brady Whitehead and Dr. Charles Bray lead the faculty procession.

Speaker John Noble motivates future professionals at graduation.

Long time friends Kate Redding, Jenny Redding, and Doug Clayton share a hug after opening convocation.

New Student Orientation

Katie Farmer, Sarah Miller, and Ann Hester are just a few of the many exciting new faces on campus.

From August 20 to 25, new students experienced the 1998 orientation "The World Out There. . . Starts Here". Led by returning students, faculty, staff, and alumni, Orientation was a fun-filled and informative weekend that provided new Lambuth students and parents with a glimpse into the many opportunities that accompany college life.

The Orientation process began on Friday, August 21, with Opening Convocation. Freshmen and transfers were introduced to the Orientation Leaders at this time. Other events during the weekend focused on the college as a new phase of life for both students and parents. They included a picnic, a parents' social and panel, a concert given by "The Jukes," and the annual Activities Fair. The weekend highlighted other special events, such as an Open House hosted by President Arnold and his family, the Starlight Symphony, a dance held at Lambuth Memorial United Methodist Church, and a football scrimmage. Freshmen Orientation concluded with the second annual Community Plunge. Over one hundred and thirty new and returning students participated in this service project that benefited the Jackson and Lambuth community.

"The World Out There... Starts Here" was an exciting and informative adventure. By the end of the weekend, students realized that Lambuth will not only affect the next four years, but the rest of their lives.

Orientation Leader Jenny Vaughn eagerly awaits the arrival of the new students.

Opening Convocation

As a new semester begins, Lambuth welcomes faculty, staff, and students to campus with its Opening Convocation. A traditional event, Opening Convocation offers the university president the chance to officially "open" the academic year with remarks concerning the present state of the university and set the tone for the coming year.

In addition to President Ellis Arnold's comments, Dr. Cheryl Bowers, Mr. Gary Williams, and Miss Wendy Keller gave their respective outlooks on teaching, working, and attending Lambuth University. In light of the views expressed, this year promises to be a year of spirit and success.

Dr. Joe Thornton and President Ellis Arnold recess at the close of Convocation.

Outside they gather to watch as the flag is raised, a symbolic action marking the beginning of the school year.

The Choir opens as the speakers prepare to speak to the audience.

President Ellis Arnold speaks to William Evans, retired clergyman from the Memphis Annual Conference.

Homecoming

With the arrival of Homecoming Week, the spirit of the University soared to amazing heights as students and alumni came together to celebrate the traditions of "Lambuth Through The Decades."

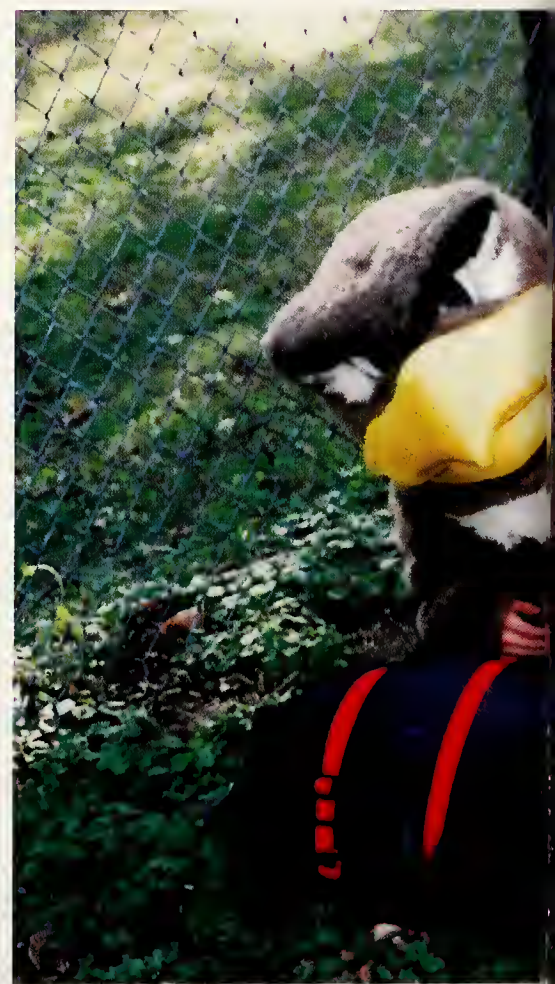

Several organizations, ranging from the International Student Association to the Greek's, participated in various competitions and philanthropic events designed to promote pride and unity of the Lambuth community. Students competed in traditional events like the sidewalk chalk and banner competition, powder puff football and men's cheerleading competition. Organizations donated time to community service projects, raising over one thousand dollars for Methodist Lebohnur Hospital and Operation Snack Food, and also collected over four thousand canned food items for Second Harvest Food Bank.

Another exciting aspect of Homecoming was bringing alumni back into the world of undergraduate students. Alumni competed in "Family Feud" against a team of current Lambuth students. Also, alumni and students came together at a "Roundtable Luncheon," where various alum's sat with students and discussed favorite memories and current issues of the university.

At the end of the week, the traditions and the spirit of Lambuth University brought about the realization that the world out there does truly start here!

Coffee Night

Thursday, September 17, 1998, the Student Activity Committee sponsored an open microphone coffee night. Lambuth students took this opportunity to express themselves in numerous ways. Some read poetry and others sang. Some memorable performances were "Family Tradition", by Kappa Sigma, and the four year tradition of Sigma Phi Epsilon's "Friends in Low Places". Everyone in attendance seemed to have a wonderful time.

Junior Jonathan Wilburn reads two poems. "Language has Failed Me" was dedicated to his girlfriend.

Robin Keel plays her guitar and performs several original songs throughout the evening.

Clarissa Chucoski and Lee Scott perform "The River" as a duet.

Allison Whiteside sings a Contemporary Christian song a cappella.

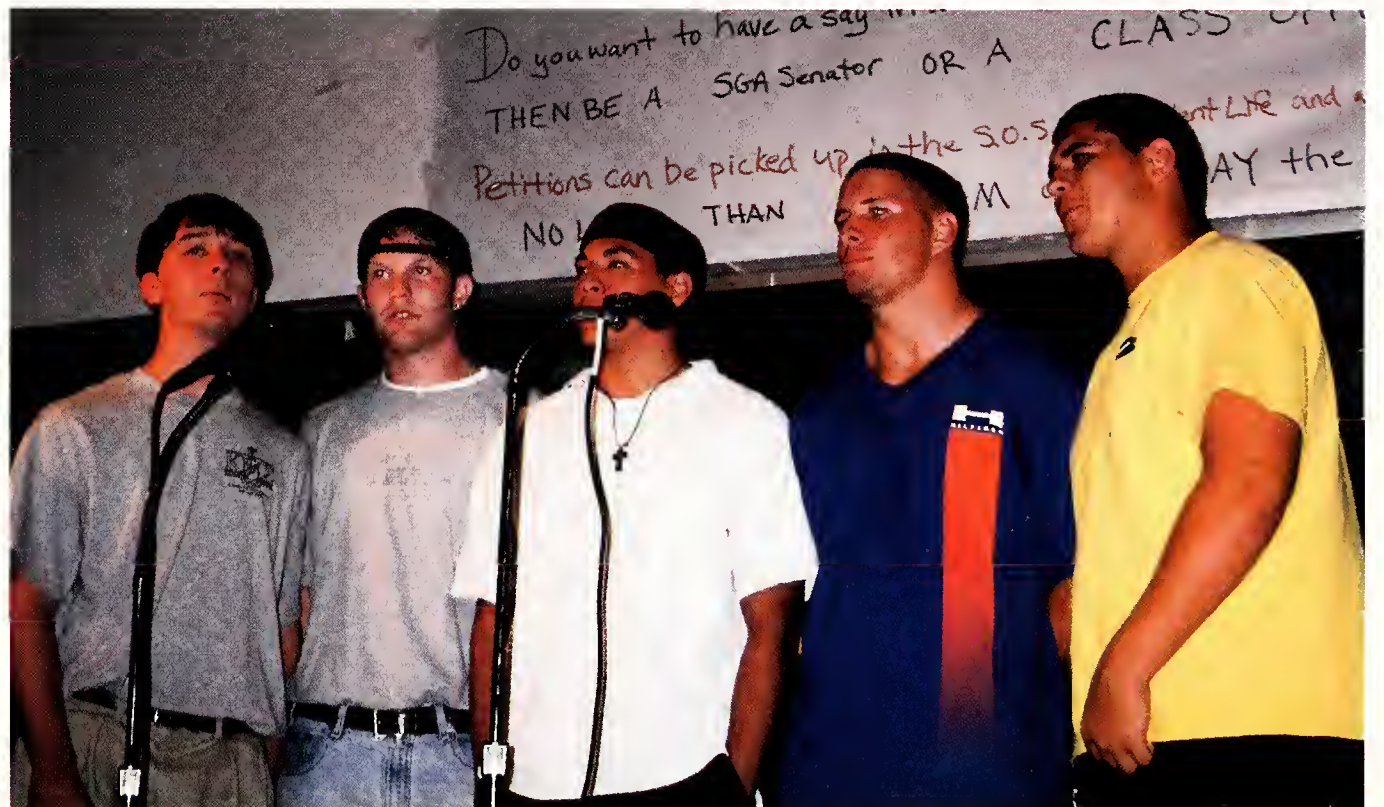

David Dietrich has a little fun singing "One Week" while the crowd sings along.

Josh Lill and Phil Bogard jam with a blues number to open the coffee night festivities.

Ashley Bartels sings "Angel" by Sarah McLauchlan .

The brothers of Kappa Sigma show unity as they perform at Lambuth's coffee night.

Double Dare and Dash for Dollars

Fall is one of the busiest times of the year for the Student Activities Committee. This is the time of year when the SAC tries to get the new students on campus to become involved in fun activities. Two events that were a big success this year were Double Dare and Dash for Dollars.

Double Dare had been planned for last spring, but due to inclement weather it was postponed until fall. The participants in Double Dare were the blue team and the grey team. The grey team consisted of Lee Scott, Jennie Booker, Ashley Bartels, and Nobuhisa Yasuda. The victorious blue team consisted of Chris Rhodes, Chris Smalley, Billy Stone, and Ann McGuire.

Later in the fall was Dash for Dollars. It was a series of three rounds of games. Twelve original contestants were narrowed to Chris Rhodes, Jennie Booker, and the overall winner, Chris Hudson, who walked away with a prize of one hundred dollars.

Chris Rhodes, Chris Smalley, Billy Stone, and Ann McGuire are a little sloppy and messy after their victory at Double Dare. The mess was worth several gift certificates awarded for their skills.

Chris Hudson walks away from Dash for Dollars $100 richer.

Both the grey and the blue teams compete in the hoop race.

The blue team rushes to fill Ann's outfit with balloons.

After the obstacle course the blue team searches for the final flag.

Forever Plaid

In September the Lambuth theatre ran a ten night encore production of Forever Plaid. This was the third time that Andy Brown, Charlie Overton, Jonathan Wilburn, and Travis Garner portrayed Frankie, Ginx, Sparky, and Smudge. The first production of Forever Plaid was November of 1997, here on campus. This summer the men of Forever Plaid, along with Steffanie Sims (Choreographer), Andrea Strickland (Props Mistress), and Matt Winstead (Light Designer), journeyed with Dr. Florence Dyer to Scottsbluff, Nebraska to work at Theater West for seven weeks during June and July. The encore performance was a homecoming experience as well as a farewell to the characters they had gotten to know so well. The men of Forever Plaid performed the show 25 times in 9 months.

This year's Interfraternal Council evaluated it's function within the Greek community and examined ways to improve the overall effectiveness of this organization. One way was to increase communication among the three fraternities present on Lambuth's campus. Through regular meetings and more dialogue among the groups, IFC accomplished it's main objective to promote fraternalism of all three organizations on a daily basis. Also, IFC encouraged participation of Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Phi Epsilon in numerous campus and community events. Hopefully, next year will be a continuation of progress begun this year and provide a stronger Greek community on Lambuth's campus.

Alpha Gamma Delta was founded at Syracuse University in 1904, as an international fraternity for women. Eleven ladies formed a friendship that promoted community service, self-improvement, and religious faith. Since its modest beginnings, Alpha Gam has been enlarging its circle of sisterhood all around the world. Theta Pi gained fifteen wonderful ladies during Fall Rush this year. Theta Pi hosted a bake sale at the Homecoming football game to raise money for the Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation, which supports juvenile diabetes research. This year Theta Pi held a hayride and two formals, along with many other events. The ladies of Alpha Gamma Delta have worked diligently to incorporate their sisterhood into all aspects of Lambuth life.

Candace Woodham, Amy Murphy, Brooke Birdsong, Shanna Booker, Angela Jacobs, Tracy Zambo, Mary Margaret Pritchett, Rebecca Gwynn, Kesha Atkinson, Emily Cooper, Laura Smothers, Amada Birchler.

The Omega Omicron Chapter has had a busy year as usual with philanthropic events, community service, and campus activities. Starting the year off with an exciting Rush week, the ladies of Alpha Omicron Pi welcomed lots of wonderful new women to their chapter. Also, Alpha Omicron Pi has raised money for their philanthropy, arthritis research, by hosting their 2nd Annual Band Benefit Concert. At the completion of the Benefit Concert, they had collected over $400 for the non-profit organization. Going out into the community, several of the sisters of Omega Omicron devoted time to the mentor program at Alexander Elementary School. The Ladies of Alpha Omicron Pi have definitely made an positive impact on both the Lambuth and Jackson community.

The ladies of the Kappa Nu have had a great year. Phi Mu started off the year with a wonderful rush. There were 17 new Phis to add to the chapter. The Bid Day party was at Highland Park where the girls played games and had a great time.

The first social event was Fall Fling held at the Farmers Market in Jackson. A great time was had by all who danced the night away.

In November, Phi Mu raised over $1000 for their philanthropy, the Children's Miracle Network by a prize give away. Thirty-five lucky winners walked away with great prizes. The same night the ladies helped with a Charity Gala at Jackson General Hospital.

The ladies have a Christmas Dinner planned for the beginning of December. Also, next semester there is a mascarade ball and annual Carnation Ball planned.

The ladies of Phi Mu have a special and unique bond that is based on their three principles of love, honor, and truth.

Kappa Sigma is off to a great start this year with a successful rush. The brothers of Kappa Sigma have a great deal of activities planned this year, including swaps with the sororities, a bachelor auction to raise money for the March of Dimes, and Big Brother Little Brother work planned with a local youth shelter. During homecoming week the brothers celebrated the Epsilon Psi Chapter's 40th anniversary. There were several activities including a golf tournament and a formal.

Kappa Sigma has been involved on Lambuth's campus as well as the community. They participated in campus clean up, intramurals, varsity sports, choir, and many other organizations on campus. They helped with the Salvation Army, the Humane Shelter, and Boys Town.

Kappa Sigma has continued to keep the rich traditions that were started by the charter members. Kappa Sigmas believe that their purpose is to achieve the total development of a better man. . . academically, socially, culturally, and civically.

In 1901, twelve young men in Richmond, Virginia began Sigma Phi Epsilon, a fraternity founded on the principles of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love. The men of Tennessee Zeta strive daily to promote these three ideals through campus involvement and community service. The Sig Ep's have enjoyed a year of success and accomplishments. Starting off the year by gaining sixteen new members during Fall Rush, Tennessee Zeta has participated in many campus activities, such as Homecoming Week, and hosted numerous social and philanthropic events, like their annual Dr. Suess Party. Looking forward to an even more successful future, the Men of Sigma Phi Epsilon will continue strive to promote the three virtues they were founded on and to be active members in both the Lambuth and Jackson community.

The Black Student Union In A World Of Unity

The Black Student Union's main goal was to bring unity among the black students on campus. This goal was not an easy one to accomplish. It took dedicated members who were concerned about bringing the black students together. The Black Student Union was also determined to have a positive voice on campus. The first step in being heard was receiving the most spirit award during homecoming week. To receive this award it took everyone coming together, and becoming a unified organization.

Student Activities SAC Committee

SAC committee members

THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE (SAC) is responsible for creating activities for students to do while they are on campus. SAC sponsors many annual activities on campus such as Spring Fling, Finals Fiesta, Canoe Trips, Coffee Nites, and much more. SAC also works towards bringing talent to campus like hypnotists, comedians, speakers, and bands. The group is made up of students that want to create fun things to do for their fellow students. Their goal is to “Keep It Spinning for You”!

As representatives of the entire student population, the Student Government Association works hard to promote a positive relationship between faculty and students. The SGA strives to work with the university to foster and implement policies and programs geared toward student interests. Primarily, the SGA ensures that students are involved in making the decisions that affect them directly and indirectly. This year the SGA held it's second annual "Night Out For The Homeless." Also, they sponsored a Thanksgiving Day Dinner for the children of Youthtown and hosted Lambuth's traditional Christmas Dinner. Among it's other responsibilities are the planning and preparation of Homecoming, the Miss Lambuth Pageant and Family Day.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is the largest religious life group on campus. FCA is dedicated to presenting the love and gospel of Jesus Christ to the Lambuth community. FCA members participate in several fundraising carwashes each year at businesses in the Jackson community. FCA also honors all the varsity sports teams, Greek organizations, and other organizations on campus by inviting them to FCA meetings and functions and by praying for them. Overall, FCA strives to provide LU students with revitalizing worship, service, prayer, and praise opportunities.

Crystal Baker pauses to reflect on the other FCA members around her who are praying for the volleyball team.

Phi Sigma Eta

Phi Sigma Eta is Lambuth's only Christian focused all women's organization. Throughout the year, they participate in many service oriented events such as reading books to children who are blind and visiting Youth Town to spend time with underprivileged children. $\Phi\Sigma H$ also sponsors several prayer partner campaigns during the year. This year the ladies added to their activities a prayer walk which they hope to make an annual tradition. A highlight in their endeavors came this year at Homecoming when they received the Spirit Award. Member Natalie Wilson says, "Phi Sigma Eta's service to the Jackson Community gives me the opportunity to witness for Christ."

Omicron Phi Tau

It is a privilege to be a part of Omicron Phi Tau because the organization's goal is achieving academic excellence. One of the many interesting things about this organization is that faculty members are eligible for membership as well as students. The main purpose of Omicron Phi Tau is to stimulate an interest in scholarship and to recognize outstanding scholastic achievement.

American Chemical Society

The American Chemical Society is one of the oldest organizations on Lambuth's campus. Dr. Hawkes and Dr. Moeller are advisors of the organization. This year Laura Sparks is the president of the American Chemical Society. Members of the ACS enjoy interesting and fun activities that they participate in as a group. This year, for the first time, the members of the ACS went to schools in the Jackson area to expose the elementary school students to the fun and exciting possibilities of science.

Under the leadership of new head coach, Jackie Johnson, the Eagles Tennis Team enjoyed a year of improvement and achievement both on and off the court. The Lambuth tennis team worked diligently throughout the year to continue as a strong competitor in their conference. By the close of the season, the determined efforts of individuals and the team as a whole proved to be successful. As evidence, Patrik Broddfelt and Neal Lawson finished first in the conference in their single's division. Also, the Eagles had several players named to the All-Conference Team and to the Academic All-Conference Team. With such a strong finish, the Eagles expect even greater accomplishments next season.

Puff Daddy (Sean "Puffy" Combs) made his long awaited solo debut in 1997 with his album "No Way Out". This album quickly went platinum.

The summer of 1998 was a race for home runs. Mark McGwire and Sammy Sosa were both looking to beat the record of 61 by Roger Maris in 1961. The dust settled and McGwire won with 70. Sosa also broke the record with 66.

Monica Lewinsky kept Washington D.C. busy in 1998. She was accused of having an affair with the president. This led to the impeachment trial of President Clinton.

John Glenn became the oldest astronaut to return to space. He was originally part of the initial space race in the 1950s and 1960's.

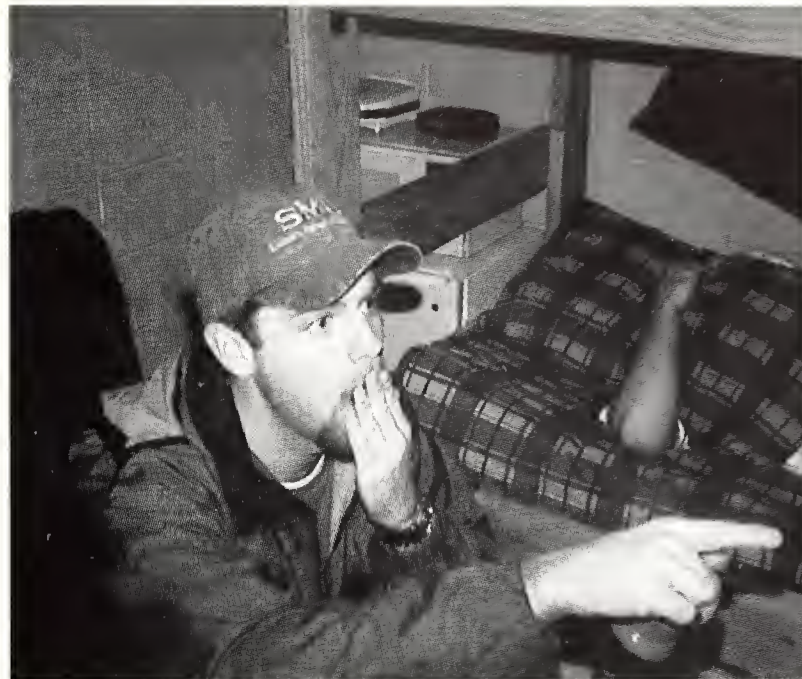

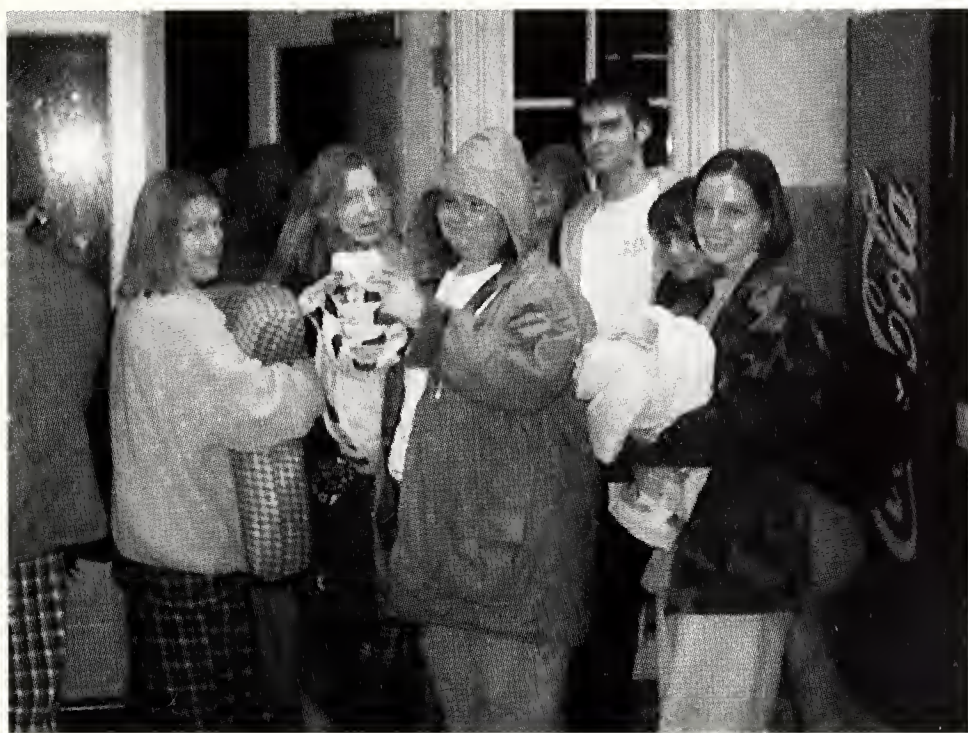

1999 began at Lambuth with new classes amid a series of tornado warnings and several tornados. One night the warning sirens went off all night every few hours. The students of Lambuth were forced to take cover.

Lauren Taylor shows that she is prepared if the lights go out.

Danny Rhodes is shocked at seeing his first Tennessee tornado.

"Can we please go to bed now?" Residents of the Senior Commons ask as they leave Spangler Hall after a very long night.

Despite the lack of sleep, Lambuth students pulled together to try to enjoy the time they spent together.

Some people chose to stay in the halls, others opted for the safety of the laundry room.
